Welcome to the OFF-DUTY sanctuary of the hotel world;
a place for catching breath and quenching thirst.

Once a spot hidden away from guests, the Porters have opened the doors to warmly invite one and all behind-the-scenes to a time capsule of bygone eras. Discover corners adorned with lost and found curiosities and walls that embrace the secrets of hotel life.

Our eclectic cocktail menu acts as the narrator to our chronicles, inspired by the inner workings of the hotel and the characters we meet. We honour ingredients from local fields and faraway places, bringing the stories to life through elements of surprise and flavour.

So come as you are, kick back and pick your punch.
For now, you are strictly OFF-DUTY.
