

The image shows the interior of a bar named 'The Porter's Store'. The focal point is a neon sign with the name 'The Porter's Store' in a stylized, glowing orange font. The sign is set against a wall with a dark, repeating geometric pattern. To the right of the sign, there is a large, lush arrangement of tropical plants, including a prominent red parrot perched on a branch. A small, round, white globe light is visible among the foliage. In the foreground, there are several bar stools with a dark, patterned fabric and a dark leather tufted booth. Small, round, dark tables are placed in front of the booth. The overall atmosphere is warm and sophisticated, with a mix of dark and warm tones.

The Porter's Store
Wharf St | St Helier

Behind closed door's, you'll find the secrets of
The Porter's Store

Welcome to the OFF-DUTY sanctuary of the hotel world;
a place for catching breath and quenching thirst.

Once a spot hidden away from guests, the Porters have opened the doors to warmly invite one and all behind-the-scenes to a time capsule of bygone eras. Discover corners adorned with lost and found curiosities and walls that embrace the secrets of hotel life.

Our eclectic cocktail menu acts as the narrator to our chronicles, inspired by the inner workings of the hotel and the characters we meet. We honour ingredients from local fields and faraway places, bringing the stories to life through elements of surprise and flavour.

So come as you are, kick back and pick your punch.
For now, you are strictly OFF-DUTY.
